Woking Palace Open Days

Other special entertainment and displays will include Beekeeping, Old Woking Test Pitting Project and children's activities.

Volunteers from the Friends of Woking Palace will provide information throughout the weekend with displays about the history of the site including archaeology and artefacts from recent excavations. They will also take guided tours round Woking Palace throughout both days as and when required with the final tours at about 4pm.

Guidebooks, CDs and postcards, along with a number of other publications, will be on sale in the on-site pavilion.

Please note: Free long-stay parking is available in Old Woking, in the larger car park (beyond the smaller short-stay area) by the mini roundabout at the junction of A247 and B382.
